Clarification

The author absolutely agrees with the rabbinic decision in force in many communities around the world that a conversion should not be made in their countries. This book is published for informative purposes only:

- For non-Jews who are interested in converting to Judaism.
- For Jewish men who have married non-Jewish women, and want to convert their children.
- For non-Jews who have a Jewish father or grandfather.
- For childless couples who want to adopt non-Jewish children and convert them.
- For cases of surrogacy or egg donation, which require conversion according to the Halacha.
