

Ohr Nissan Talmud Center, Inc.

Spreading Torah Throughout the World!

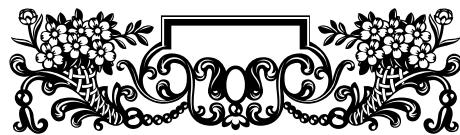

With the strong support of world-renowned Torah leaders, Ohr Nissan Talmud Center, Inc. has been devoted to training educators and scholars in the finest tradition of Sefaradi Jewry for more than twenty-five years.

In the words of Rabbi Aharon Feldman א"תילש, dean of Ner Israel Rabbinical College, "Virtually every institution which provides for the spiritual needs of Iranian Jewry in the United States is staffed by former members of Ohr Nissan Talmud Center, Inc."

Ohr Nissan Talmud Center, Inc. provides scholarships to more than two dozen highly dedicated Torah scholars who study full-time with the goal of gaining the knowledge necessary to strengthen and perpetuate the Sefaradi heritage.

We appreciate your generous support. Please help us continue our vital work by sending in your tax deductible contribution today.

Acknowledgments

My principal teacher, Rabbi Moshe Heinemann א"טילש, strongly believes in the importance of studying the works of all God-fearing Torah scholars regardless of which community they represent. Rabbi Heinemann's approach reflects the teaching of the Mishnah that whoever seeks more advice gains more understanding.¹ In addition to consulting many sources, I have been able to apply the Mishnah's teaching and gain valuable insights from the many people who read and commented on the manuscript for this book.

I would like to thank my wife, Rebbetzin Geoula Cahn, Rabbi Yoel Feldman, Rabbi Emmanuel Terenyo, Yaakov Zabludowski, Yehoshua Solomon, Aryeh Nirenberg, and Yosef Khaver, all of whom read the manuscript either in Hebrew or English, and pointed out instances where clarifications were advisable. I greatly appreciate their efforts.

I also wish to recognize my long-time friend, Rabbi Reuben Khaver, the founder and director of Ohr Nissan Talmud Center, for his efforts in support of publication of this book.

Rabbi Cahn begins his excellent new book by forcefully demonstrating that the contemporary observant Jew must be familiar with Jewish philosophy. The powerful ideological challenges which we inevitably confront in the general culture cannot be met without a thorough knowledge of the ways in which our tradition meets those challenges.

Regrettably, many observant Jews, including some with extensive Jewish educations, are insufficiently familiar with the philosophical aspects of our tradition. Such subjects are typically not part of the yeshiva curriculum, and students avoid studying the relevant sources independently because they find them daunting.

Rabbi Cahn's new book addresses this problem. He uses clear and cogent language without compromising the sophisticated and often highly nuanced nature of the subject. He provides the reader with an advanced treatise on the tenets of our faith, but avoids overwhelming him with technical language and unessential complexity.

The reader can restrict himself to the text, ignoring the footnotes, and thus gain the basic familiarity required to address the ideological challenges which he faces. Or, he can use the footnotes to guide him as he delves deeper into the profundities of genuine Jewish philosophy.

Many Jewish individuals have become conditioned to think of philosophy as something very esoteric and uninteresting. With Rabbi Cahn's book they are in for a surprise. By reading it they will discover the fascinations of authentic Jewish philosophy. Rabbi Cahn proves that Jewish philosophy can be both illuminating and engaging.

Congratulations to Rabbi Cahn for addressing a very pressing need in our community, and additional congratulations on a job well done.
